City of Newburgh Department of Human Services/AmeriCorps VISTA Volunteers Host “How to Start a Neighborhood Association”

Do you think your neighborhood should have its own Association? Why not start one? On Thursday, July 23 at 6:30 p.m., the City of Newburgh Department of Human Services: AmeriCorps Vista Volunteers will host a free work shop on how to do just that.

“Start a Neighborhood Association,” a Department of Human Services Strong Neighborhoods Strong Families initiative, will be held at the Newburgh Free Library at 123 Grand Street.

For more information, call Barbara Simon, AmeriCorps VISTA Volunteer, at 565-1213, ext. 7017.
