Photographs by Horizons on Hudson 21st Century After School Program Students in City Hall

Photographs by City of Newburgh 21st Century Newburgh Rising Afterschool Initiative, based at Horizons on Hudson School, are on display in City Hall.

Participating students in the photography class, taught by Alicia Simon, are: Elijah Benjamin, Evan Brohan, Lamar Burch, Gerard Conte, Maia Dron, Ivan Garcia, Maya Huntley-Loehr, and Mikayla McMillan. The class is composed of students in grades 3-6.

The City of Newburgh's 21st Century Community Learning Centers, funded by a grant from the New York State Education Department, involves the following schools: Horizon on the Hudson, North Junior High School, Free Academy and more than 30 service providers.

The 21st. Century Community Learning Centers is designed to provide expanded academic and cultural enrichment opportunities for children and their families.

The exhibit was installed by the Arts Alliance of the Hudson Valley.
