

portion of the application from. The Planning Board may approved, modify or deny any application for a Special Permit Use. If it approves such permit, it may attach such conditions thereto as may be necessary to accomplish the objectives of the Zoning Ordinances. Such conditions may consist of one or more of the following: A time limitation, erection of a solid board fence entirely around the site to a height of six feet before the use requested is initiated or other such conditions as the Planning Board deems necessary. Granting of a Special Permit does not exempt the applicant from complying with all the requirements of building codes and other ordinances. In any case where the conditions of a Special Permit use have not been or are not being complied with, the administrative official shall give the permittee notice of intention to revoke such permit at least ten (10) day prior to a Planning Board hearing thereone. After conclusion of the review, the Planning Board may revoke such Special Permit. Any Special Permit granted approval must be exercised within one (1) year of the granting of the Special Permit, or such Special Permit shall then, without further action, become null and void.
