

2019 BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

For the City of Newburgh Industrial Development Agency Board of Directors

Christina Amato, IDA Board Member and Member of the Audit/Finance Committee

A resident of the City of Newburgh for over ten years, Ms. Amato holds a graduate degree in Real Estate Development and Finance. Currently a professional real estate developer and manager, prior work experience has been with Leyland Alliance and Ecological Development. Ms. Amato is also a past member of the Orange County Citizens' Foundation Place Making Committee and The Historical Society of the Newburgh Bay and The Highlands; current member of Newburgh's East End Historic District Assn. Former local business owner; currently restoring an "historically contributing" Newburgh house and gardens in the east end.

Sarah Beckham-Hooff, IDA Board Member and Member of the Governance Committee

Graduated with a B.A. in Environmental Studies & Russian studies, Bucknell University, also has Master of Science in Environmental Science, Policy, and Management; Resident of Newburgh for several years. Current member of the City of Newburgh Planning Board. Currently owns real estate brokerage firm, ReAttached Real Estate. Prior work experience as a director of projects and grant writing. Moved to Newburgh several years ago after working for years abroad.

Austin DuBois, IDA Chairman and Chair of the Governance Committee

Resident of Newburgh; graduate of Temple and Rutgers Universities' Schools of Law; local practicing attorney; member of the Boards of Directors for Inspire, St. Luke's Cornwall Hospital, and the Good Work Institute.

Michael Kelly, IDA Board Member (info pending)

Adam C. Pollick, IDA Board Member and Member of the Audit/Finance Committee

Resident of Newburgh for over 15 years. Educated at SUNY Albany with a B.A. degree in Russian Language, Literature, and Culture and a Master of Science Degree from Pace University. Formerly a member of the City of Newburgh Waterfront Advisory Committee. Employed in the managed health care sector for over 20 years with a wide range of experience, including focuses in health care finance, claims operations and provider relations, including physicians, hospitals and laboratories.

Marlon M. Ramos, IDA Board Secretary and Treasurer and Chair of the Audit/Finance Committee

Graduated Newburgh Free Academy, SUNY Orange, with A.A.S. in Business Administration, and SUNY New Paltz, with a B.S. in Accounting. Resident of Newburgh for many years, having returned back to the city after a 3-year hiatus in the City of Peekskill. Recent employment has been with AT&T as an Account Executive, currently a realtor with Keller Williams Realty Group.

Nancy Thomas. IDA Vice Chair and Member of the Audit/Finance Committee and the Governance Committee

Raised in Newburgh, NY. Restored and renovated Goldsmith Denniston House and has operated it as a Bed & Breakfast for 15 years. Before returning to Newburgh, was owner of a Design/Build business on Hilton Heads Island, SC for 17 years. Past president of Newburgh Preservation Association, Past president Union Presbyterian Corp.; Board member—Newburgh Professional and Business Association and committee member of Newburgh Distressed Properties.